RED FOX SUPPER CLUB & LOUNGE

Our Family Story

In May 1987, the Hoff family acquired a 297-acre ranch in the Northeast Helena Valley with a vision to create a vibrant golf community. The location offers convenient access to various lakes and national forest lands, providing ample opportunities for outdoor activities.

The owners worked diligently to develop the property, securing local financing, clearing debris, and transplanting 2,800 trees. Their efforts resulted in the successful construction of a 9-hole Par 3 course, which was later expanded to a full 18-hole course.

Financing was secured for a Championship Regulation Course, and a clubhouse was constructed to enhance the overall experience. Despite setbacks with Mountain West Bank for the construction of the clubhouse the owners persevered and found First Continental Bank in Harlowton to complete the project.

At the Fox Ridge
Golf Course
Helena, MT

The Par 3 golf course benefits golfers by providing accessibility, skill development, time efficiency, confidence building, and a family-friendly golf experience. It is a versatile and enjoyable option for golf enthusiasts of all backgrounds and abilities.

The Regulation course, renowned for its challenge, features a formidable three-million-gallon pond water hazard, earning its reputation as "One of the most difficult in the West." This sizable water hazard adds an element of excitement and difficulty that sets it apart.

Thank you! To the entire community, family, friends, and our staff.
